

What are your qualifications for renting? Can I avoid the application fee?

- The qualifications are not the same for each home, since they are owned by different investors and each investor has their own set of qualifications. That said, our properties are offered for lease without regard to race, color, religion, handicap, family status, or national origin of any prospective tenant by law.

- All prospective tenants must pay the application fee before the application is processed .